THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Allegedly, all Bulgarian Border Guard officers stationed along the Turkish, Greek, and Yugoslav frontiers are to be replaced by men trained in the USSR. 25X1 this replacement was ordered by Moscow only a few weeks ago following a large increase in desertions of Bulgarian Army officers and men to Yugoslavia.
2. In some villages along the Bulgarian-Yugoslav frontiers, a strict curfew is reported to have been instituted. People are not allowed in the streets or even in their backyards after 9 p.m. A man who was two minutes late returning from work in the fields had to pay a fine of 3,000 leva. The frontier militia is said to have received orders to shoot at sight any civilian out after 9 p.m. 25X1
